Bayone, April 21.

YEſterday paſs'd through this Place 2 Couriers, with Letters from King Philip to his Queen; they were forc'd to come ſo far about, becauſe the other Paſſages are poſſeſs'd by the Enemy. The 18th M. de Labadie arriv'd here, and is to proceed to Eſtramadura to command in the Army of the 2 Crowns under the Duke of Berwick, in the Quality of Lieutenant General: M. de Heſſy who is likewiſe to command in that Army in the ſame Quality, is daily expected here. The laſt Letters from Madrid, inform us the News of the taking of Alcantara by the Portugueze caus'd a great Conſternation in that Court; among the 10 Battallions that were made Priſoners in it, was the Regiment of Flemiſh Guards. 'Tis talk'd here, that the Militia of theſe Parts will be rais'd and ſent to the Frontier of Spain; and that the Recruits deſign'd for the Marſhal de Theſſe's Army, and which continue here becauſe they could not paſs to that Army, the Paſſages towards Catalonia being in the Hands of the Enemy, will be order'd to march to Pampelona.

From the Amſterdam Courant, dated May 8.

Turin, April 13. 'Tis advis'd from Biella, that the Enemy not contenting themſelves with raiſing Contributions in that Diſtrict, demanded a certain number of Men for filling up their Regiments; and that ſome of their Officers coming to Moſſo and Camandona to levy ſome of thoſe Men by Force, the Peaſants roſe in Arms and knock'd them all on the Head: Upon this, the Duke de la Feuillade ſent 3000 Men to live there at Diſcretion, but before they could get thither the Peaſants fled away with their Cattle and Goods to the Mountains; ſo that the Enemy found the ſaid 2 Places abandon'd and empty; thereupon they exercis'd their Fury upon Cravacora, a Place in the Principality of Maſeranno which is held in Fee of the Pope, which they plunder'd for 5 Hours. Advice being brought hither, that Paul Diack Collonel of the Enemy's Huſſars was with his Men at Saluge near the Doria Baltea, a Detachment of 600 Horſe, part Huſſars part German Cuiraſſiers, were ſent from hence thither the 31ſt of laſt Month at Night, each Horſeman having behind him a Foot Soldier of our Garriſon: 'Tis ſuppos'd Collonel Diack had ſome Notice of the March of our Detachment, for he had ſent out 25 of his Men, who at ſight of ours made off with all Expedition to inform him of our Approach: 12 of thoſe Men were overtaken and made Priſoners, and their commanding Officer, a Frenchman, was ſhot dead; in the mean time the Enemy retir'd over the Doria and eſcap'd. 'Tis talk'd the 12 Huſſars that were taken will be put to Death, becauſe they formerly deſerted from us to the Enemy. The 3d Inſtant, Proclamation was made, that thoſe who would undertake the building of ſome more new Outworks about this City and the Citadel, ſhould repair the 7th to the Commiſſioners of the Fortifications. The 5th we had Advice from Genoa by an Expreſs, that the Duke of Vendome had intimated to that Republick that he had Order from the King of France to cauſe Siege to be laid to this City very ſuddenly. The 6th a Courier arriv'd from the Marquis de Prie, who is now in the Emperor's Service, with Letters for our Duke, in which was a Liſt of the Troops deſign'd to make up Prince Eugene's Army; the number of thoſe Troops is ſo conſiderable, that the Enemy will be oblig'd to ſend the Men they have in the Canaveſe to Lombardy. The 7th his Royal Highneſs gave Order, for a Covert-Way to be made from the little Forts call'd Fontanella and St. Bino to the Po, with ſome Redoubts that are to communicate with other ſmall Forts that lye lower. Some Commiſſaries that were ſent to raiſe 6000 Men in Piembat, to be incorporated in our old Regiments, have had great Succeſs, and will compleat that Levy in a few Days; after which we ſhall be able to form an Army of at leaſt 20000 Men, whereof 4000 are Horſe in a very good Condition for Service; and if we have but ſome rainy Weather to make the Graſs ſhoot up, theſe Troops will take the Field by the End of this Month. The 11th the Birth-Day of our Duke's Mother was celebrated, with a tripple Diſcharge of Artillery and of the ſmall Arms of 2 Regiments of Foot that were drawn up before the Palace. Yeſterday his Royal Highneſs gave Order for the Bulwarks of this City to be clear'd and made ready for the heavy Cannon to be planted on them; and the like is to be done in all the Outworks and ſmall Forts. A great number of Men are kept continually at Work on the Preparations for the Defence of this City.

From the Antwerp Courant, dated May 7.

Cazal, April 26. Laſt Night a tripple Salvo of our Artillery was made, for the Victory obtain'd by the Duke of Vendome the 19th Inſtant at Calcinato. This Morning early 45 Cannon and 27 Mortars, and above 100 Hogſheads of Wine, were ſent from hence to Chivas, and about Noon the Duke de la Feuillade with ſeveral General Officers went thither. 'Tis not at all doubted now that Turin will be beſieg'd, and 'tis ſaid that Siege will be begun as ſoon as a Courier whom the Duke de la Feuillade has ſent to the Court of France, is come back. 2000 Waggons and 6000 Pioneers are ſummon'd to be at Chivas by the 12th of May, at which time the Army will draw together in the Neighbourhood of that Place.

From the Amſterdam Gazette, dated May 7.

Inſpruck, April 26. Letters from the Imperial Camp near Calcinato of the 19th Inſtant import, that that Day the Duke of Vendome had attack'd the Poſts of Montechiaro and Calcinato, with an Army of 23000 Men Foot and Horſe; and that after a very bloody Action the Imperialists who were in Number but 12000 Men, were oblig'd to retire towards Gavardo, with the Loss of 600 Men kill'd, and about 15 or 1600 wounded or taken Prisoners, among them General Falkenstein and Lieutenant General the Count of Vehlen. The Loss of the Enemy was not certainly known, but the Imperialists having defended themselves bravely, it must needs be considerable. The French by the Retreat of the Imperialists got 6 Pieces of Cannon and some Provisions and Baggage.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, dated May 7.

From the Upper Rhine, May 1. The Prince of Baden having Intelligence that the Enemy had form'd 2 Bodies of Troops to attack our Posts about Fort-Louis, left Rastad Yesterday Morning, to dispose things in Order to maintain himself if possible in the Posts we are possess'd of. The Troops of the Circle of Franconia are order'd to repair to Lauterbourg by the 3d Instant, and those of Swabia to Drusenheim. Deserters assure us, that the Marshal de Villars's Army is 30000 Men strong, and that he encamp'd 2 Days ago at Henen on this side Wiersheim: They add, that that Marshal is follow'd by a Train of Artillery, and a certain Number of Peasants that he has summon'd in to serve as Pioneers; and that the Marshal de Martin, at the Head of another Body of Troops, is to advance from the Moselle, to favour the Designs of the Marshal de Villars. 'Tis computed the Troops that are about Bischweiler, Haguenau, and Fort-Louis, amount to near 20000 Men; and consequently if those of the Circles of Swabia and Franconia can join them time enough, as is hop'd, the Enemy will not easily succeed in their Enterprizes. Some Advices from Bavaria say the French have their Emissaries there, who do all they can to foment a new Insurrection, by insinuating that powerful Succours will speedily be sent thither. Tho' there be little likelihood at present that the French can execute any Enterprize on that side, yet the Circle of Swabia does not omit to take all necessary Measures to hinder the French from penetrating, as they have formerly done, into the Black Forrest.
